DCC Title IX (Sexual Harassment and Misconduct): Your Rights and How to Make a Report Consistent with its mission, Danville Community College is committed to providing a learning and working environment that emphasizes the dignity and worth of every member of its community. Sexual misconduct, which encompasses a range of behavior used to obtain sexual gratification against another's will or at the expense of another in any form will not be tolerated. Sexual misconduct includes sexual harassment, sexual assault, sexual exploitation, and sexual violence. Sexual harassment is unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature, which can include unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, or other verbal, nonverbal, or physical conduct of a sexual nature. Thus, sexual harassment prohibited by Title IX can include conduct such as touching of a sexual nature; making sexual comments, jokes, or gestures; writing graffiti or displaying or distributing sexually explicit drawings, pictures, or written materials; calling students sexually charged names; spreading sexual rumors; rating students on sexual activity or performance; gender-based stalking or bullying; conditioning a benefit on submitting to sexual advances; or circulating, showing, or creating e-mails or websites of a sexual nature. Under Title IX, this constitutes sexual misconduct and includes rape or sexual assault.

If you have been the victim of sexual harassment or other sexual misconduct, you have certain rights under Title IX. For additional information regarding your rights, please consult the DCC Title IX website at http://www.dcc.vccs.edu/News/Title_IX/Title_IX_and_Sexual_Misconduct.htm.

In accordance with College policy and federal law, all faculty and staff members are required to report incidents of sexual harassment including sexual violence to one of the individuals below whose responsibility it is to investigate all complaints. In addition, you can contact these individuals for a complaint against a Danville Community College faculty or staff member for sexual harassment, sexual assault, sex discrimination, or other forms of sexual misconduct:
